United Tech Ops Announces PW4000 Overhaul Partnership

April 18, 2019 - United Technical Operations is pleased to announce it is partnering with Fortress Transportation and Infrastructure Investors LLC (FTAI) Aviation for PW4000-94" overhauls. FTAI Aviation purchased surplus engines from United and chose United's MRO Services for the program. This partnership will foster growth for our Engine MRO and build a platform for success throughout the coming years. United has already inducted the first three engines into its San Francisco facility.

"FTAI Aviation is a wonderful partner and customer for us to build our MRO brand as we ramp up our commercial third-party business." – Mark Eldred, VP, Base Maintenance

"United Technical Operations was a great choice for our immediate PW4000 maintenance needs, and we will be looking to them for future work as well." – Joe Adams, CEO, FTAI
